nominal at life, with sales of 2000 bales, Liverpool was dull and depressed at 8d against the 8585gd that prevailed before New Years. We now see a thorough "stampede" on account of heavy receipts. The holdes feels the pressure and gives way, and buyers are in the ascendant; cotton has fallen in our market to-day accordingly. Buyers found it was their time "to go in and win," and many jots of cotton were secured at most favorable prices. The buyers of low and redium coltons were on the niert and making the most of the occasion. Very little superior cotton the occasion. Very little superior cotton changed hands, for the holders know that in that they have "a sure thing," the proportion of it received becoming smaller each week. placed upon an increased demand to grow out of the increasing case—amounting almost to plethora—in the money markets of Europe. The liberal export has prevented any further marked accumulation of stocks, and home spinners are accumulating stocks from shipments to hem direct from the south. Money is easy and there is consequently little difficulty in carrying stocks, while prices are much below those current one year ago. But all those influences have been canvassed over and over again, and their effect in some degree/impaired by their familiarity, and the certainty, also, that they have been met by more powerful influences operating in the other directions. It may be noted, also, that the course of the markets for couton goods has been a little disappointing—the demand has not been so active as was expected, and the tendency to higher prices appears to have the tendency to higher prices appears to have received a decided check." THE WEATHER Was delightful yesterday, but bashess was quiet, and we have but little to tell. Cors was again in good demand, with sales at 72,475c. Oats are quiet, except seed oats, which cannot be said to have a settled quotation. Brus is hardly as strong as before; sacked sold down to $18. Corsmeat is held stiffer at $1 5 in store; nothing on landing; the St. Louis Republicas of Thursday quotes it "declined and slow at $2 9042 8 for city, country $1 6542 8." Platees are better for seed varieties, and Peachblows are held at higher figures; seed varieties have advanced. Cubbage remains firm. Sait is lower. Baik port is very firm at former quotations, some asking is higher. Butter remains high and firm. The $1. Louis papers of Thursday report: "Receipts light, socks have become very small, and with a steady demand for all qualities prices have largely advanced. Fine table qualities are scarce, and all grades are firm. We now quote dairy packed at 20,850; dairy roll at 25,050; selections, [e32 higher. Prime and choice country store, rolled and packed, from 25 to 28c; common to prime, 20, 26,22c." Eggs are very weak, and fresh are selling at 20c; the St. Louis Republican says: "Receipts liberal, stocks large, with no outlet and a very light local demand, hence the market has been dull and weak—the price closing at 16c to frashe per dozen for shippers' count and recounted. The same paper says of patotes: "Receipts and others in sacks at $1 50 to $1 35 per bushel. Nothing doing except in a obbing way at higher range of price." Proplif from $1. nigher and bigher prices; the New York Bullefts, January 21st, reports: "As regards the prespect of supply for 187, we have, in the first place, to notice a deficiency in the Ceylou crop, new coming forward of fully 20,00 tons as compared with 1872-73. Seconday, a deficiency of quite 25,00 tons in the quantity to be received from Rio in the current half year. In the seven months from the 80th November, 1872, to the 20th June 1873, 500,000 bags were exported from Rio to Europe, and 62,000 to the States, a total of 1.215,003, bags; whereas the quantity from Rio to Europe, and 62,000 to the States, a total of 1.215.00, bags; whereas the quantity available for export from 10th November last to the 30th June next will, owing to the small crop, probably not reach 80,00 bags, of which the States will require at least 90,000. Thirdly, the Java crop will also be shore, the latest official estimates being section bags against 1,05,000 in the previous season; but this will not materially affect the quantity to be offered at the Putch sales, as the Trading company hold a larger stock in Holiand than last year. The position of coffee is undoubledly very strong, we must, however, expect great fluctuations; pending the arrival of adequate supplies prices are likely to go stilligher, but a few months hence, if the Brazil crop of 1874-5 should promise favorably, we may experience a sharp reaction."

> Weather, Rivers and Business. Yesterday was another pretty day, al-though quite cold, with indications of snow. The river here fell twelve inches; though quite cold, with indications of snow. The river here fell twelve inches; at Pittsburg a decline of ten inches is noted; at St. Louis a rise of nine inches is reported, and at Cincinnati the swell is thirty inches. From a special dispatch from La Salle to the St. Louis Republican of the twenty-fourth we glean that the Illinois river has risen sixteen feet within the last forty-eight hours, and is still rising, though slowly. The river is free from ice below Peru, but the ice is gorged above the Peru bridge, and it is apprehended that when it breaks away the steamer Alps, lying below, will be seriously endangered. The thermometer was eighteen degrees above zero at sundown, and slowly falling." Business on the levee yesterday was on a par with the Sunday transactions of the past menth.
